- c) For the purpose of rendering emergency medical assistance or to intervene in any other emergency situation where the health or safety of another person is at risk;
- d) For custodial, maintenance, or inspection purposes, provided that the restroom or changing facility is not in use;

¹"Sex" means the classification of a person as either female or male based on the organization of the body of such person for a specific reproductive role, as indicated by the person's sex chromosomes, naturally occurring sex hormones, and internal and external genitalia present at birth.

- e) If the appropriate designated restroom or changing facility is out of order or under repair and the restroom or changing facility designated for the opposite sex contains no person of the opposite sex.

In the event of any inconsistency in the student's records, the administration reserves the right to request additional documentation from the parent or guardian to verify the student's biological sex at birth. This policy shall at all times be construed in accordance with state and federal law.

3. Violations. Pursuant to Section 553.865(9), F.S., instructional personnel or administrative who willfully enter, for a purpose other than those listed above, a restroom or changing facility designated for the opposite sex on campus and refuse to depart when asked to do so commit a violation of the Principles of Professional Conduct for the Education Profession and are subject to discipline pursuant to Section 1012.795 F.S.
